RE: Wall of Fame Recognition Wall

PROPOSAL

We at Award Emblem are thrilled to collaborate with Presentations, Inc., a renowned environmental graphic design and construction firm, to bring your vision of a distinguished Wall of Fame to life. After diligently assessing proposals from three leading companies, Presentations emerged as the optimal choice, offering a solution that seamlessly blends creativity, functionality, and affordability. Specializing in bespoke interior branding, donor recognition, and interactive exhibits, their portfolio exemplifies excellence in design and execution. We are confident that their expertise in consulting, design, fabrication, and installation will ensure the creation of a remarkable and enduring tribute to the dedicated individuals of the Romeoville Police Department.

Their comprehensive approach ensures consistency throughout the project, coupled with prompt and reliable service to address any post-completion issues or concerns. Additionally, they provide a one-year warranty on all projects, underscoring their commitment to quality and customer satisfaction.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

The proposed plan outlined herein is based on the information furnished and our interpretation thereof. Award Emblem and Presentations will collaborate to develop and refine the provided conceptual design for the Romeoville Police Department's display. The display will undergo meticulous engineering to ensure an accurate realization of the conceptual design, unless modifications are approved for production or budgetary considerations. This quotation encompasses all components of the project, except the individual name plates for the four panels moving forward, which will be priced at $24/plate. The digital display specified in the quote is a 21.5-inch touch screen in-store LG screen model inTOUCH215, which does not include Arreya software, but does include a built-in Chromecast media player.

Display Cost (without a media player, software and nameplates) $31,500

Installation $2,850

Recognizing Achievement. Encouraging Excellence.

Optional Arreya Digital Signage Subscription

Arreya is the online signage program that will enable the creation of a simple slide show or complete interactive content through our design studio and distribute it to the screen through an internet connection.

Annual Arreya Subscription

$450

Chrome Device

A chrome device computer that is connected to the screen and internet allows you to update the content in real time and also show videos or calendars or any type of information that you may desire. The chrome box is locked down into kiosk mode and can be managed through the chrome console.

Lenovo Chrome Micro Device (with enterprise management)

$775

Design proofs are sent via email and formal signature approval on final designs is required prior to any fabrication.

QUOTE ACCEPTANCE & PAYMENT SCHEDULE

This proposal remains valid for a period of 10 days from the date of origination. Upon acceptance of this proposal, payment shall be made using the following schedule:

10% Retainer (due at signing)	$3,558
45% of Balance (due in two weeks)	$16,009

WARRANTY

Presentations provides a comprehensive one-year warranty on all products, effective from the date of completion. This warranty encompasses all labor and materials required for repairs attributable to defects in workmanship or materials. However, it does not cover defects resulting from normal wear and tear, vandalism, neglect, or acts of nature. Additionally, the warranty extends to digital hardware and software, with potential variations depending on the manufacturer's extended warranties for specific digital components.

Presentations prioritize swift and efficient resolution of any defects or concerns, underscoring their commitment to customer satisfaction. However, it is important to note that Presentations is not liable for costs or repairs incurred without prior notification.

We are confident that the partnership between Award Emblem and Presentations will result in a remarkable Wall of Fame for the Romeoville Police Department. With our combined expertise and dedication to excellence, we look forward to delivering a tribute that honors the department's legacy and the contributions of its members.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'R. Jason Klein', with a stylized flourish at the end.
