Honoring Sally Skoff as one of the 2020 Outstanding Master Gardeners in Illinois

Mayor Noak welcomed and recognized Sally Skoff on her achievement on being named one of the 2020 Outstanding Master Gardener's in Illinois. This achievement is only granted to the top 1% of Master Gardener Volunteers.

Sally Skoff explained how she has been a Master Gardner Volunteer's since 2017. In Romeoville, Sally monitors the local butterflies and dragonflies in the forest preserve and works the pumpkin composting event at Lewis University. They offer many programs from the grade school level to senior citizens.

The Mayor thanked Sally Skoff on her commitment and dedication to our local wildlife and beautification of our community.

A Concept Plan for Mercedes-Benz of Romeoville

Josh Potter thanked the Mayor and the Board for the opportunity to present the new project to the community. The project is proposed for the property just south of the Blain's Farm and Fleet on the corner of Airport Road and Weber Road. This property is 23.2 acres. The dealership will be a state-of-the-art design which includes a showroom, service area, merchandise and parts shop, and some office and lounge space.

Trustee Richards explained that this dealership will bring permanent jobs to the community while attracting people from the region.

They plan to start construction this summer and hope to open the dealership sometime in July or August 2022.
